

Mary Cunningham, NP – BIO

Mary has worked in the nursing field in critical care for more than 30 years. Initially as a staff nurse and for the last 15 years as a nurse practitioner. Mary has particular interest in process improvement, neurological nursing and ethics. She has published a chapter in the End of Life Communication in ICU. She has worked on the Mission and Ethics board at Hotel Dieu –Grace Hospital for 4 years and for the last 3 years has worked with the Critical Care Secretariat in the capacity as a coach specializing in end of life issues in critical care.