

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Table of Contents _____	1
Introduction _____	2
Purpose of Protocol _____	2
Getting Started _____	2
Audit _____	3
Feedback Form _____	4

Appendix A: Best Practice Guidelines for the Management of the Hemiplegic Arm: A Positioning and Handling Protocol in an Acute Care Setting

Appendix B: PowerPoint Presentation: Hemiplegic Shoulder Presentation for staff education sessions (on CD)

Appendix C: Job Aid: Positioning Hemiplegic Arm: Lying on Hemiplegic Side; and Lying on Unaffected Side. (Right and Left)

Appendix D: Job Aid: Independent Transfer of a Stroke Patient Standing up from a Chair. (Right and Left)

Appendix E: Job Aid: Two Person Transfer of a Stroke Patient. (Right and Left)

Appendix F: Job Aid: Two Person Transfer of a Stroke Patient using a Transfer Belt. (Right and Left)

Appendix G: Job Aid: Single Person Transfer of a Stroke Patient. (Right and Left)

Appendix H: Job Aid: Arm Sling (Right and Left)

Appendix I: Sample Audit

Appendix J: Power Point Presentation:
Background Information: Management of the Hemiplegic Arm: Implementing a Best Practice Protocol (on CD)

Please note the content of this package including photographs were based on the equipment likely to be available across a broad range of settings.*

For more information regarding this package please contact:

Jennifer Beal, Regional Stroke Education Coordinator: jennifer.beal@lhsc.on.ca

OR

Deb Willems, Regional Rehabilitation Coordinator: deb.willems@lhsc.on.ca