ST JOSEPH'S HEALTH CARE LONDON

Parkwood Hospital

Continence Assessment and Management Flowsheet

Contributing Factors Reviewed: ☐ Continent (no further management required)

dd/mm/yy
Cognition and Neurological Damage	Unaware of incontinent status	☑
	Unable to sense full bladder	☑
	Expresses some awareness: Observed behavior (OB), Non-verbal (NV) Verbal (V)	☑
	Able to carry over instructions	☑
	Follows: 1 step; 2 step; 3 step commands	☑
	Aware and indicates need to void	☑
Mobility and Self Care	Transfers to commode with 2 assists	☑
	Transfers to toilet with 1 assist	☑
	Transfers to toilet with supervision	☑
	Stands: Supported (S); with Assistive Device (AD); Independent (I)	☑
	Can manage clothing	☑
	Can manage hygiene	☑
	Independent with toileting	☑
Commun-ication	Unable to indicate need to void	☑
	Able to use call bell to alert staff	☑
	Able to indicate need to void: Non-verbally (NV) Verbally (V)	☑
Fluid Intake	Unable to take in minimum 1500 mls. per day	☑
	Able to take in 1500-2000 mls. per day	☑
Consti-pation	Is constipated/impacted	☑
	Is on a regular bowel routine	☑
	Is able to move bowels regularly	☑
UTI	Has UTI per urine C & S	☑
	UTI is being treated by MD	☑
	UTI is resolved	☑
Interventions	Implement cognitive strategies	☑
	Monitor transfers	☑
	Monitor ability to manage clothing □ assistive devices □ hygiene □	☑
	Use bladder u/s to assess for retention	☑
	Do I.C.'s as per doctor's orders	☑
	Provide communication cards	☑
	Implement intake/output record	☑
	Consult with Pharmacist re: meds that impact on inc. □ promote cont. □	☑
	Consult with RD to provide ↑ fluids	☑
	Initiate bowel program	☑
	Monitor for S&S of UTI	☑
	Consult Continence Clinic/Urologist	☑
	Initiate bladder training program	☑
Initials and Designation:										