

Module 6: Communication

QUIZ ANSWERS

1. Correct order is:
 - a. cognitive-communication impairment
 - c. receptive aphasia
 - d. global aphasia
 - b. dysarthria
 - f. expressive aphasia
 - e. apraxia
2. Any four of the following:
 - set the stage: quiet room, turn off the TV, etc.
 - use visual aids
 - speak slowly
 - write the topic down (e.g., When talking about the time for the medication write, "What time?" and point to a clock, while saying "What time should you take your pill?")
 - explain one idea at a time (e.g., talk about what time he should take his Coumadin, then talk about the other medications)
 - write down key words
 - verify that he understood (e.g., "Now, what time should you take your pill?")
 - ask the Speech-Language Pathologist for simplified teaching materials about Coumadin
3. Any three of the following:
 - admit that you didn't understand
 - ask her to repeat herself speaking more slowly
 - repeat any part of the message you did understand, i.e., "You said something about pain. Can you show me where you have pain?"
 - offer pen and paper to write it down
 - use of an alphabet board
 - use a visual pain scale
4. g. all of the above

TRUE/FALSE Answers

5. False
6. True
7. True